

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
JACOBS SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Summer Percussion Workshop

July 14-18,
2008

John Tafoya, Director
John Kilkenny, Artist Liaison

Faculty: Keith Aleo, Christopher Deviney,
Gordon Gottlieb, Steve Houghton, John Kilkenny,
Glenn Kotche, Gordon Stout, John Tafoya, and She-e Wu.

This intensive five-day event is offered to talented percussionists. Applicants in grades 7-12 are invited to apply for the Pre-College Session. Applicants over 18 are invited to apply for the Adult Session, with both offerings running concurrently.

Master classes, clinics, and performances will be presented by internationally renowned performers. Sessions will include audition techniques for college and professional auditions, chamber music, sight reading, orchestral timpani and percussion, marimba, drum set, accessories, world percussion, career development, and much more! Students will also perform in the IU Percussion Ensemble's "Grand Finale" concert. On-campus housing is available.
